

CYTO
VANCOUVER
June 22–26, 2019

Melanie Neeland
Murdoch Children's Research Institute, Melbourne, Australia

Dr Melanie Neeland is a fellow of the Centre of Excellence in Food & Allergy Research at the Murdoch Children's Research Institute in Melbourne, Australia. Melanie currently leads a team investigating the early life immune origins of allergic and respiratory diseases. In addition to identifying mechanisms that drive the development of allergy in childhood, Melanie's research interests include the pathophysiology of chronic childhood respiratory diseases, including Cystic Fibrosis.